Employment Application

OTHER

Please attach a complete resume and any certificates that pertain to fire, EMS or rescue.

Due to the dangers of firefighting, any disabilities will be addressed during our interview process. Please attach a letter describing any disabilities. A medical release form may be required from your doctor to prove you are fit for the arduous duties of the wildland firefighting environment. Your safety, and the safety of the team, must always be the top priority in all decisions made.

If selected, you are required to have, or complete, the following courses before your first assignment:

S130/S190/L180 – Basic wildland fire

ICS 100/200/700 – FEMA incident command training

Arduous Pack Test

BLS Provider CPR class or equivalent

EVOC Annual – Emergency Vehicle Operation Course

RT-130 – If you are a second-year firefighter or higher
